

Careers Expo 2026

Explore Your Future

 University |  Trades & Apprenticeships |  Creative Arts |  Health |  Defence & Emergency Services |  Business |  Hospitality |  Sport |  Automotive |  Employment & Support

UNIVERSITY & HIGHER EDUCATION

Australian Catholic University (ACU)

ACU offers undergraduate and postgraduate study across a wide range of disciplines including education, health, nursing, business, law, psychology, arts and social sciences. Students can explore university pathways in a supportive learning environment with a strong focus on community and preparing for meaningful careers.

Explore: ACU

Axiom College

Axiom College provides vocational education and training designed to help students develop practical skills and nationally recognised qualifications. Its programs can provide pathways into employment, apprenticeships and further education.

Explore: Axiom College

Bond University

Bond University on Queensland's Gold Coast offers programs across law, medicine, health sciences, business, psychology, communication, architecture and more. Bond is known for its personalised learning environment, small class sizes and accelerated study structure.

Explore: Bond University

Griffith College

Griffith College provides a supportive pathway into university study, offering diploma programs that can lead directly into a wide range of undergraduate degrees at Griffith University. Students can explore study areas including business, education, health, IT, engineering, criminology and more, while developing the academic skills and confidence needed for university success.

Explore: Griffith College

Griffith University

Griffith University offers a diverse range of study options across business, law, education, health, medicine, engineering, IT, science, creative arts and more. With campuses across Southeast Queensland, Griffith combines academic learning with industry and career opportunities.

Explore: Griffith University

James Cook University (JCU)

JCU has a strong focus on health, medicine, environmental science, marine science, agriculture, education, engineering and regional communities. Students can explore careers connected to the unique environments and industries of tropical and regional Australia.

Explore: James Cook University

Queensland University of Technology (QUT)

QUT is a Brisbane-based university with a strong emphasis on practical, industry-connected learning. Students can study areas including business, communication, creative industries, education, engineering, health, law, science and technology.

Explore: QUT

The University of Queensland (UQ)

UQ is one of Australia's leading research-intensive universities, offering programs across science, engineering, medicine, health, business, law, education, humanities and technology. Students can explore a wide range of academic and career pathways.

Explore: The University of Queensland

Torrens University Australia

Torrens University offers career-focused higher education across business, design, hospitality, health, nursing, technology, education and creative industries. Its flexible study options provide students with a range of pathways into further study and employment.

Explore: Torrens University

University of Southern Queensland (UniSQ)

UniSQ offers flexible study across engineering, education, business, health, science, agriculture, IT and the arts. Students can study on campus, online or through blended learning, with a strong focus on practical and career-ready skills.

Explore: UniSQ

University of the Sunshine Coast (UniSC)

UniSC offers programs across health, education, business, science, engineering, psychology, creative industries and environmental studies. Students can gain practical experience while building connections with industry and community.

Explore: UniSC

APPRENTICESHIPS, TRADES & VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Apprenticeships Queensland

Apprenticeships Queensland connects people with apprenticeship and traineeship opportunities, helping students gain nationally recognised qualifications while developing practical skills and valuable workplace experience.

Explore: Apprenticeships Queensland

Australian Trade Training College

Australian Trade Training College provides practical trade training and nationally recognised qualifications across areas including construction, automotive, electrical and other skilled trades. Students can explore pre-apprenticeship and apprenticeship pathways.

Explore: Australian Trade Training College

East Coast Apprenticeships

East Coast Apprenticeships connects apprentices and trainees with employers and training opportunities across Queensland. Students can explore career pathways where they earn while they learn and gain nationally recognised qualifications.

Explore: East Coast Apprenticeships

Inscope Training

Inscope Training provides practical vocational training across areas including construction, apprenticeships, first aid and workplace safety. Students can explore hands-on training designed around real-world industry needs.

Explore: Inscope Training

MEGT

MEGT supports apprentices, trainees, job seekers and employers across Australia. Students can explore opportunities that combine paid employment, structured training and nationally recognised qualifications.

Explore: MEGT

My Industry Training

My Industry Training provides vocational training and industry pathways designed to help students develop practical skills and qualifications for employment. Students can explore opportunities across trades and other hands-on industries.

Explore: My Industry Training

OSMAC Apprenticeships

OSMAC Apprenticeships provides apprenticeship pathways and support for young people entering skilled trades. Students can explore opportunities to gain practical workplace experience while completing a formal trade qualification.

Explore: OSMAC

TAFE Queensland

TAFE Queensland is one of Australia's largest vocational education and training providers, offering courses across trades, business, health, creative industries, technology, hospitality, community services and many other career areas.

Explore: TAFE Queensland

The BUSY Group

The BUSY Group is a not-for-profit organisation supporting people through education, training and employment programs. Students can explore pathways to develop skills, gain qualifications and connect with employers.

Explore: The BUSY Group

The Industry School – Brisbane & Redlands

The Industry School provides an alternative senior secondary pathway combining classroom learning with practical industry experience. Students can work towards their QCE while exploring vocational careers and gaining real-world skills.

Explore: The Industry School

Apprenticeship Support Australia

Apprenticeship Support Australia provides information and support for people considering apprenticeships and traineeships, helping young people understand their options and connect with opportunities.

Explore: Apprenticeship Support Australia

CREATIVE ARTS, MEDIA, MUSIC & ENTERTAINMENT

Australian Performing Arts Conservatory (APAC)

APAC provides specialist higher education in acting, screen production and musical theatre. Based in Brisbane's CBD, APAC combines practical training, creative development and industry-focused learning for students interested in careers in the performing arts and entertainment industry.

Explore: APAC

Jazz Music Institute (JMI)

Jazz Music Institute is a Brisbane-based institution specialising in jazz performance and music education. Students can develop skills in performance, improvisation, composition and ensemble work while learning from experienced musicians and educators.

Explore: Jazz Music Institute

JMC Academy

JMC Academy specialises in creative arts and entertainment, with courses spanning music, audio, animation, design, games, film and television, acting and entertainment business. Students learn through practical and collaborative creative projects.

Explore: JMC Academy

Queensland School of Film and Television

Queensland School of Film and Television provides practical training for students interested in film, television and screen production. Students can explore careers in directing, camera, editing, production and storytelling.

Explore: QSFT

SAE University College

SAE University College specialises in creative media education, with study options in audio, film, animation, games, music and creative technology. Students learn through practical, project-based experiences designed to develop industry-ready skills.

Explore: SAE

ACAP University College

ACAP University College focuses on people-centred careers, offering study in areas including psychology, counselling, social work and related disciplines. It provides pathways for students interested in understanding people and supporting individuals and communities.

Explore: ACAP

AVIATION, ENGINEERING, CONSTRUCTION & INDUSTRY

BASAIR Aviation College

BASAIR provides professional flight training for students interested in becoming commercial pilots. Its aviation programs include pathways to a Commercial Pilot Licence and instrument ratings, with flight training available in Brisbane.

Explore: BASAIR Aviation College

Bechtel Australia

Bechtel is a global engineering, construction and project management company involved in major infrastructure, energy, mining and industrial projects. Career opportunities span engineering, project management, construction, trades, technology and professional services.

Explore: Bechtel

Brick & Block Careers

Brick & Block Careers promotes career opportunities within bricklaying, block laying and the construction industry. Students can learn about apprenticeships, trade careers and the practical skills involved in building and construction.

Explore: Brick & Block

Hitachi Construction Machinery

Hitachi Construction Machinery operates in the heavy machinery and construction equipment industry. Students can explore careers across mechanical trades, heavy equipment, engineering, technology, sales, service and business.

Explore: Hitachi

Australian Country Choice

Australian Country Choice is an Australian agribusiness involved in beef production, processing and supply. Career opportunities span agriculture, food production, logistics, engineering, business and many other areas of the food supply chain.

Explore: ACC

DEFENCE, EMERGENCY SERVICES & PUBLIC SERVICE

ADF Careers

ADF Careers provides information about career opportunities across the Australian Army, Royal Australian Navy and Royal Australian Air Force. Students can explore hundreds of career options including engineering, health, technology, aviation, trades, logistics and communications.

Explore: ADF Careers

Queensland Police Service

Queensland Police Service offers career opportunities in policing and public service, including frontline policing and specialist roles. Students can explore careers focused on community safety, investigation, leadership and service.

Explore: Queensland Police Service

Queensland Ambulance Service

Queensland Ambulance Service provides emergency medical services throughout Queensland. Students interested in health, emergency response and helping others can explore careers in paramedicine and a range of operational and support roles.

Explore: Queensland Ambulance Service

BUSINESS, FINANCE, PROPERTY & REAL ESTATE

Luxe Lending Group

Luxe Lending Group is a finance and lending business that helps clients navigate property finance and lending solutions. Students can explore career pathways across finance, banking, mortgage broking, customer service, business and property, while gaining an insight into the skills and opportunities available within the financial services industry.

Cav Rd SHS thank Luxe Lending Group for their valued support of the Cav Rd school community.

Explore: Luxe Lending Group

RE/MAX Holland Park / Morningside

Zoe & Co RE/MAX Holland Park / Morningside is part of the RE/MAX real estate network, Zoe & Co offer a world of experience to support you on your property journey and goals, whatever motivation or sensitive situation is behind the reason you are selling or buying, you can feel comfortable and at ease when talking to Zo.

Cav Rd SHS are grateful to RE/MAX for their ongoing support of our Cav Rd community.

Explore: RE/MAX

Success Real Estate Training Centre

Success Real Estate Training provides training for people interested in entering the real estate industry. Students can learn about the qualifications and skills required for careers in property sales, property management and related areas.

Explore: Success

HEALTH, WELLBEING & EDUCATION

All Sports Physiotherapy

All Sports Physiotherapy provides physiotherapy services supporting recovery from injury, movement and return to sport and activity. Students interested in physiotherapy, sports science, rehabilitation and allied health can explore careers in this growing field.

Explore: Allsports

Hively Health Psychology

Hively Health provides psychology, positive behaviour support and social work services. Private and NDIS psychology and positive behaviour support. Therapy and assessments for all ages.

Cav Rd SHS are grateful to Hively Health Psychology for their ongoing support of our Cav Rd community.

Explore: Hively Health

NumberWorks'nWords

NumberWorks'nWords provides tutoring and learning support in mathematics and English for school-aged students. It offers insight into education, tutoring and learning-support careers.

Cav Rd SHS are grateful to NWNWs for their ongoing support of our Cav Rd community.

Explore: NumberWorks'nWords

Tactile Learning

Tactile Learning focuses on education and learning support, helping students develop skills and confidence through individualised approaches. Students interested in education, tutoring and supporting diverse learners can explore related career pathways.

Explore: Tactile Learning

HAIRDRESSING, BEAUTY, HOSPITALITY & CULINARY

Barrington College

Barrington College provides vocational education and training in areas including hospitality, commercial cookery, business and event management. Students can develop practical, industry-focused skills and explore careers across hospitality and business.

Explore: Barrington College

Brisbane School of Hairdressing

Brisbane School of Hairdressing provides practical training for students interested in hairdressing and the beauty industry. Students can explore hands-on career pathways in hair, styling, salon services and related creative industries.

Explore: BSH

Demi International

Demi International provides vocational training in beauty, hairdressing, barbering, nail technology, makeup artistry and massage. Students can explore practical training and nationally recognised qualifications for careers in the beauty and personal services industries.

Explore: Demi International

Institute of Culinary Excellence

Institute of Culinary Excellence provides training for students interested in professional cookery and hospitality. Students can explore practical career pathways in commercial kitchens, food preparation, hospitality and the broader food industry.

Explore: ICE

Zarrafra's Coffee – Mount Gravatt

Zarrafra's Coffee is an Australian-owned coffee company with cafés across Australia. Students can explore hospitality careers while developing valuable skills in customer service, teamwork, leadership, operations and business. Cav Rd SHS are proud to have Zarrafra's Coffee – Mount Gravatt as a supporter of our Cav Rd school community and thank them for their continued partnership.

Explore: Zarrafra's Coffee

SPORT, RECREATION & COMMUNITY

Brisbane Bullets

The Brisbane Bullets are a professional basketball organisation competing in Australia's National Basketball League. Careers in professional sport extend well beyond playing, with opportunities in coaching, sports science, administration, marketing, media, events and community engagement.

Explore: Brisbane Bullets

Pacific Golf Club

Pacific Golf Club is a Brisbane sporting and community venue centred around golf, recreation and hospitality. Career opportunities can extend across sport, administration, hospitality, events, grounds management, retail and customer service. Cav Rd SHS are proud to have Pacific Golf Club of our Cav Rd school community and thank them for their continued partnership.

Explore: PCG

Carina Leagues Club

Carina Leagues Club is a community-focused sporting, hospitality and entertainment venue that also provides vocational education and training opportunities through its RTO. Students can explore pathways into hospitality, business, events, customer service, sport, administration and venue management, while gaining an understanding of the training and career opportunities available within the club and hospitality industries. Cav Rd SHS are proud to have Carina Leagues Club as a valued sponsor and supporter of the Cav Rd school community and thank them for their ongoing commitment to our students and school.

Explore: Carina Leagues Club

AUTOMOTIVE, TRANSPORT & SPECIALIST INDUSTRIES

FleetCrew 4WD Hire Specialists provides specialised 4WD vehicle hire solutions, supporting customers across a range of industries and travel needs. Students can explore career pathways within the automotive, transport and fleet industries, including vehicle operations, mechanical services, customer service, logistics, business and fleet management.

Cav Rd SHS thank FleetCrew for their valued partnership and ongoing support of the Cav Rd school community.

Explore: FleetCrew

EMPLOYMENT, CAREER SUPPORT & TRANSITION PATHWAYS

Career Employment Australia – Wynnum Manly Employment & Training

Career Employment Australia supports people to develop skills, find employment and build sustainable careers. Students can explore employment services, training opportunities, job-search support and pathways into the workforce.

Explore: WYNMET

Link and Launch

Link and Launch supports young Queenslanders who have completed Year 12 but have not yet moved into further education, training or employment. Students can receive personalised support to explore options including university, TAFE, apprenticeships, traineeships and employment.

Explore: Link and Launch