Why Dell?

Dell has a longstanding relationship with the Department of Education & Training and is fortunate to hold a large market share of the notebooks and desktops purchased by schools throughout Queensland. Because of this, we are in a unique position to understand what devices work and do not work in a school environment.

Dell has chosen a small group of devices from the DET approved devices on the Education Panel for our BYOD Program powered by Datacom Systems. Three of these models were specifically created for the education market. Most of the devices in our BYOD Program are built for education and corporate environments – they are not retail/consumer devices. However, we have added a couple of consumer devices recently that have proved popular. All of our notebooks and tablets come with Next Business Day Onsite Warranty, and optional Accidental Damage Protection…. Dell also includes 24x7 software support. So you’re covered!

About Datacom Systems

Datacom Systems specialises in supplying solutions to the education sector throughout Australia. This year, we are very pleased to have been selected as the preferred partner by Dell for the Department of Education & Training Parent BYOD program. We look forward to working with staff and families involved with this program, which leads the way for the use of technology in the classroom.
